

WHITE CLIFFS COUNTRY U3A

THIS branch of the U3A, launched in 1993, now has over 160 members. This year the number of courses, run in day-time for minimal fees, of 50p per class, has increased. Included are: Antiques – a Reflection of Social History, English Literature, Exploring Britain, German, French, Probability and Statistics, Appreciation of Art, Local History, Scotland's Heritage and a Creative Writing Workshop.*

The U3A is run by and for the retired and semi-retired, aged 50 or over. Non-members, like members, are welcome at the monthly meetings and talks, which usually take place y at the Deal Angling Club, 13 The Marina, Deal, at 2.30.

Forthcoming talks are:

- Dec. 14 Illustrated talk about Frank Merrick, who wrote a completion for Schubert's Unfinished Symphony: John Rapley.
- Jan. 11 The Rôle of H.M. Customs in Dover and Folkestone areas.
- Feb. 8 Humanism: its History and Principles: Eric Radcliffe.
- Mar. 8 Budge Adams gives an illustrated talk on the Growth of Dover Harbour since 1400 A.D.
- Apl. 2 At DEAL TOWN HALL. The Radio Revolution. A talk by John Grant followed by the A.G.M.

Information on membership may be obtained from Helga Rapley, 17 The Grange, Shepherdswell, Dover CT15 7QB. Tel 830125

* The Creative Writing Workshop, a new class starting on Wednesday 11 January 1995, will be led by Merril Lilley, at 5 East Cliff Dover. Tel. Dover 205254.

Deadline FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Editor welcomes contributions and illustrations. Interesting line drawings are particularly welcome as are text discs formatted on DCA. The deadline for issue 22 – for publication on 1 April is Wednesday, 1 March 1995. Please remember to type your "copy" with double spacing and if your "copy" can only be in manuscript form please leave plenty of space between lines.

Publication in the Newsletter does not imply the Society's agreement with the views expressed nor does the Society accept responsibility for any statements made. All published material remains the copyright property of its authors, artists and or photographers