

---

PROGRAMME 2005

Guests are welcome at all meetings except the Annual General Meeting which is for members only.

- |                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| APRIL 18Monday 7.30            | ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGSpeaker: Councillor Paul Watkins "Dover's Pride"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| MAY 19Thursday                 | A Visit to Chartwell, the home of Winston Churchill with its beautiful gardens overlooking the Weald of Kent. History comes to life in the family and exhibition rooms containing memories of Sir Winston and his time. £10.00. Entrance to house £7.00. Free to National Trust members.Pick-ups: 11.00 Railway Bell; 11.10 Frith Road; 11.15 Brook House CP |
| JUNE 23Thursday a.m.           | Walkabout Hythe - a half day outing. Guided tour around this ancient and historic town led by members of the Hythe Society. Lunch in a local hostelry. £10.00 excluding lunch.Pick-ups: 09.00 Railway Bell; 09.10 Frith Road; 09.15 Brook House CP                                                                                                    |
| JULY 9Saturday                 | To celebrate SEA BRITAIN 2005 a visit to Chatham Dockyard.Morning - time to explore on your own. Afternoon - guided tour to discover the role women played in the work of the Royal Dockyard, followed by a paddle steamer cruise whilst enjoying a cream tea. £24.00.Pick-ups: 09.00 Railway Bell; 09.10 Frith Road; 09.15 Brook House CP               |
| AUGUST 25Thursday              | London - The British Museum. Worth visiting if only to see the Great Court, one of the lost spaces of London, hidden from public view since 1857. If time permits a visit to The Theatre Museum, Covent Garden. £14.00.Pick-ups: 08.00 Railway Bell; 08.10 Frith Road; 08.15 Brook House CP                                                           |
| SEPTEMBER 17Saturday           | France. To be arranged.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| OCTOBER 21Friday               | 200th Anniversary of the Battle of Trafalgar and the death of Admiral Lord Nelson. Dinner and Dance. Town Hall. Details later.                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| OCTOBER 24Monday 7.30          | Speaker: Harry Ward "Captain Cook"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| NOVEMBER 14Monday 7.30         | Speaker: Councillor Richard King "The Future of Kent"Brainstorming Session                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| DECEMBER 17Saturday 7 for 7.30 | Christmas Feast.Start Christmas in style by attended our annual feast held in the splendid surroundings of the Refectory in Dover College. £17 to include sherry reception, a sumptuous buffet, wine, soft drinks and entertainment.                                                                                                                  |

All indoor meetings are held at St Mary's Parish Centre

---