Chartwell and Quebec House

Arrive at Chartwell by 11.00 am the home of Sir Winston Churchill from 1924 until the end of his life. The rooms, painting studio, and gardens remain much as they were when he lived there. There is an excellent restaurant with good seating capacity where I would suggest you eat before leaving approx 2.45 pm to go onwards to Quebec House the home of General James Wolfe, who led British forces to victory over the French in Canada 1759. Tea, coffee & cakes are available at this site.
Pick-up points: The Railway Bell 08.45; Hollis Motors 08.50;
Frith Road 08.55; Brook House Car Park 09.05
