2. Matters Arising: from April 13:

Membership Cards: to be enclosed in booking letter (August) for Western Docks visit.

Headed notepaper: no progress

Prof Cunliffe : invitation being pursued via John Clayton.:

: venues for Spring Conference, May 5 1990: LC had explored on the basis of up to 180 and a cold buffet. River Caterers were cheapest but all were too expensive. Further investigation requested of Dover Girls GS, DHB Hall and St M's Bay Country Club.

: from May 18

1. Cleaning of R. Dour: all cttee members present expressed willingness to be approached to help in some way: JO made the point which was approved that in general the Society should be in a leading and encouraging role. Resolved that a subcttee with D. Turner should decide on future plan of campaign: LW, LC, SS, JG, JC and MM.

2. KW will write to DDC approving waste disposal.

3. Chairman's Report:

a. At the mayor making Chairman invited the Mayor and the Dover MP to 16 Oct meeting who accepted; also for Xmas Party.

b. Thanks to PK fpor delightful evening 1 June at her most successful exhibition. LW will write appreciation for Newsletter.

c. Chairman HAS written a grateful letter to J. Sunderland for his enthusiastic lecture, with guarded comments.

d. Chairman, PK, JG, LC will attend DDC Garden Party Kearsney Abbey June 21.

4. Secretary's Report:

a. We were invited to comment on development of Forge Garage site. KW wrote repeating opinion already expressed.

b. No takers for £60 invitation to Civic Trust amenity conference at Christ Church, Oxford.

c. The Chemical Industry offered a selection of lectures on environmental subjects. We might welcome a suitable one in winter.

d. The Landmark Trust might like to insert a small announcement in Newsletter. It was suggested we make a charge.

5. Treasurer's Report (submitted in writing):

The net C.I.H is £87.11 + 5 yr subscriptions reserve: 1988 5 yr £300
1989 5 yr £104

Members on Books 215: Paid up members 5yr 63: annual 79

6. Social Secretary's Report:

a. Shortfall of 19 for Rochester trip. Profit of £50 still expected, plus proceeds of raffle. Suggested future booking slips should include: 'Please enclose s. a. e if acknowledgement required'.

b. So far only 18 applications for Dover College visit. Several cttee members added their names but it was suggested that reminder/invitations should be posted.

c. Xmas Dinner at Dover College fixed for 8 December. Guests to be invited soon.

d. A request to provide a lecturer for the "Active Retired", Tuesday 21 November 3.00 - 4.00 p.m. PJ has expressed willingness to meet such requests.

7. Planning Committee:

JW and from Planning Subcommittee 4 members had a two-hour meeting 7 June with DDC Planning Officers J. Clayton and D. Sturt. They had a wide-ranging and enlightening account and discussion of long-term plans for Dover. Details were to be considered confidential. The limits within which local planners work were clearly seen: govt pressure to develop or sell land, the authority to control proposed developments but not to dictate it. KW went through planning applications which he is watching: Pencester, old B & Q site, River Walk (particularly Halford site), Avo on A20, W Hts architectural competition among others.

8. Editor's Report:

The Editor will continue to act until 31 July. Page limit and distribution were further defined. It was decided to seek some discreet advertising to cover postage. PK & LC to collaborate.

9. D. O. N. M: Thursday 13 July: immediate apologies from Vice-Chairman and AG.

10. A. O. B. : JG had received more archival material relating chiefly to Cowgate Cemetery. Suggested it be offered elsewhere.
