REMINDER : Any outstanding debits/claims to the Treasurer, before 25 Mar. Please!

5. Projects

Work party at Lydden Pond 7 Mar.

14 Mar. : Operation Dour Scour

(4th Successive year : Dover Cadets Voluntary Community Service.
Two teams and a DDC award.)

18 Mar. Lydden Pond again

Leopards' heads heraldic bollards project in train - most likely for Civic Trust Environment Week in May.

6. Membership Secretary :

Current membership : 364 New : 4 (Some from Film Festival stand. Thanks to JeO et al.)

Resigned : 93 (Highest number : 457)

7. Press and Publicity Secretary :

absent, on duty at Film Festival stand.

8. Planning sub-committee :

(a) The closest watch called for on plans for A256/A2. Still no date for dualling of A2. Dept. may be looking for alternative Northern route.
The A 256 proposed grade separated junction with the A2 and spur to the White Cliffs Business Park would entail two roundabouts.
Good for traffic. Bad for environment.

(b) Buckland Paper Mill
2 x 30 m. high chimneys.

Question : Nature of the emission and why so high ?
(Under the rubric : Short-term gains must not cause long-term harm.)

(c) Comments on : KWIK Fit at Cherry Tree Ave.
Car Sales at 146 London Road
Conversion of offices to flats : 157 Snargate Street

(d) Marine Court : not listed. No action.

(e) Customs House : If not listed we press for listing.
