

THE DOVER SOCIETY

MINUTES of the 67th meeting of the Executive Committee, held at the R.C.P.Y.C. at 7.30 p.m. on Thursday 14 April 1994.

Apologies : MR KW

Present : Chairman Vice-Chairman Secretary Treasurer

JC SC JL LG SS JO ML BA

- * Before the agenda business the committee was addressed, chiefly by John Chesshyre of the National Trust, supported by the architects : Joanna van Heyningen and Birkin Haward and also Mike Goddard and James Cooper concerning the plans for the Langdon Cliffs Visitors Facilities.

If the project initially arrived unheralded and without consultation, this has been amply corrected and the presentation, with questions and answers after, demonstrated the quality of the research and care with which the N.T. has proceeded.

The Chairman warmly thanked the team for their co-operation.

- * A get well card was circulated for signatures, to Peter Johnson who is in hospital for an operation.
 - * The business meeting started more than an hour later than usual so that it was necessary to focus on the most urgent items on the agenda.
 - * The Chairman strongly commended new member Arthur Goodburn to the Committee as one well fitted and willing to do good work for the Society.
- Taking account of the fact that, at present, with twelve, the Committee is fully manned, it was decided that Mr. Goodburn would have best scope to make his contribution by being seconded to the Planning sub-committee, which is also the area where his interests are said to lie.
- * The Vice-Chairman, rather than under A.O.B. , referred back to the Committee's earlier decision to nominate a Co-Vice-Chairman and proposed Jeremy Cope who was willing to serve. This appointment was carried with acclaim by all present.
