

The Dover Society
Millennium Project - Erection of Memorial Plaques
Provisional List

- 1) TSB, Castle Street: On this spot in September 1944 fell the last enemy shell, fired from France, to land in Kent. (The Dover Society).
- 2) Market Square: Near this spot were the town's "instruments of punishment" including stocks, pillory and whipping post (The Dover Society).
- 3) Camden Crescent: Here, at Number Ten, Charles Dickens and his family lodged in 1852 while he wrote parts of Bleak House. Wilkie Collins was a regular visitor. (The Dover Society).
- 4) Southern House: It was here, when this was the Lord Warden Hotel,' that Napoleon III was re-united with his wife Eugenie after he abdicated in 1871 and came into exile in England (The Dover Society).
- 5) Charlton Centre (need checking exact spot): Here was the home of Dover man William H. Elgar (1822-1906), the father of composer SirWilliam Elgar who was born in Worcester in 1857. (The Dover Society).
- 6) Maritime Hall, Snargate Street: Here was born Philip Yorke (1690) later Baron Hardwicke, who became Lord Chancellor in 1737. Instituted Calling of Banns before weddings (Marriage Act 1753). (The Dover Society).
- 7) NOW DELETED Malvern House,' London Road, River (house yet to be located): Here P.G. Wodehouse received some of his education when this house was a school. (More information from Jack Woolford) (The Dover Society).
- 8) High Street (bottom of Tower Hamlets Road): Near this spot was Dover's place of execution, by hanging, until 1823. (The Dover Society)
- 9) Underpass, Bench Street: Beneath this spot in September 1992 was discovered a Bronze Age boat reputed to be 3,000 years old. (The Dover Society).
- 10) Taswell Street-Taswell Close area (once a garden): Near this spot, on Christmas Eve 1914, fell the first aerial bomb ever to be dropped on the United Kingdom. (The Dover Society).
- 11) On the museum, site of the Market Hall. Here the bodies of those who gave their lives in the Zeebrugge Raid in 1918, temporarily rested.